Book Fair

Thank you to all that shopped the book fair last week. We sold over $3000 in books!! That means the teachers will have $800 to split to purchase items for their classrooms! Thank you Sally Adams and all that worked the book fair!

LUNCH

Please remind your children to let their teachers know when they are eating hot lunch. We have been short meals due to children and parents not letting the office or teachers know their meal plans. Susan orders food before 9 am every day. We must have a solid count. Thank you! This is very important!

Veterans Day Celebration

Don't Forget our Annual Veterans Day pancake breakfast, program and Mass. We will celebrate those who have sacrificed so much for us on November 9 with breakfast starting at 7:30. Children are encouraged to invite their favorite veteran to breakfast and Mass. If you have a picture that you have not sent in for past celebrations please email them to nseward@stpaulmacomb.com. We will put them in our slide show!

Please sign up for the free breakfast that morning so the Knights of Columbus have a head count. Call Susan!

The Annual Cookie Walk is scheduled for Friday, November 30th & Saturday, December 1st as part of Dickens on the Square. This festive event is sponsored by the Women's Guild and will again be held at Taylor Hall (125 S. Randolph). We will need plenty of your homemade Christmas goodies (cookies, candy, pies or bread)! This year we will be selling full cookie trays on Friday evening from 7pm-8pm. The complete sale will be Saturday beginning at 8:00am. Older youth volunteers are needed Friday evening to help bring items in from the curb and adults are needed to help set up Friday evening and work the event on Saturday. Please contact Sally Adams (773-299-003) or Cheryl McGowan (309-333-4198) if you can help in any way.
